

7.1.9 Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties, and responsibilities of citizens

To generate awareness about constitutional rights, values, duties, and responsibilities as per the Indian Constitution, the institute organized the following programs:

1. Constitution Day Celebrations: Institute celebrated Constitution Day (26th November) with various activities by conducting special lectures and group discussions to educate students, faculty, and staff about the significance of the Constitution and its principles.

2. Constitutional Awareness Workshops: Conducted interactive workshops wherein legal experts, scholars, and professionals explained and discussed the fundamental rights, values, duties, and responsibilities enshrined in the Constitution. This workshop was especially organized on the role of citizens in upholding constitutional values.

3. Debate Competitions: Organized debate competitions on constitutional issues and encourage students to research and present arguments related to fundamental rights, social justice, or constitutional amendments. The objective behind the same was to foster critical thinking and a deeper understanding of the Constitution.

4. Constitution Quiz: Conducted a quiz competition that focuses on testing participants' knowledge about the Constitution, its provisions, historical context, and landmark judgments. This interactive format engaged students in a fun and educational manner.

5. Street Plays and Skits: Arranged street plays or skits that depict real-life scenarios highlighting constitutional rights, values, and responsibilities. These performances addressed issues like gender equality, freedom of expression, or the importance of voting.

6. Constitutional Literacy Campaign: Run social media campaign to promote constitutional literacy among the wider community. Created informative digital posters, flyers and videos explaining fundamental rights and duties in simple language.

7. Guest Lectures: Invited legal scholars and public figures to deliver guest lectures on constitutional rights, values, and responsibilities. Encouraged audience participation and Q&A sessions to promote dialogue and understanding.

8. Social Media Campaign: Utilize social media platforms to share bite-sized information, infographics, and inspiring stories related to constitutional rights, values, and duties. Encourage students and staff to actively share and engage with the content to reach a wider audience.

9. Constitutional Awareness Competitions: Organized essay writing, poster making, or video making competitions that focus on constitutional rights, values, or duties. It's encouraged creative expression and deeper exploration of constitutional concepts.

10. Voluntary Service Initiatives: Encouraged students to engage in voluntary service activities that align with constitutional values, such as organizing legal aid camps, promoting social justice. The students participated in environmental conservation projects. These initiatives reinforce the practical application of constitutional rights and responsibilities.

By implementing these programs, the institute effectively generated awareness, promote understanding, and foster a sense of responsibility towards constitutional rights, values, duties, and responsibilities among students, faculty, and the wider community.
